

BRITISH MUSEUM
INDIAN ARTS AND ARCHITECTURE
NO. 100.10.1

Statue of a Hindu deity, likely a form of Shiva or Parvati, standing on a tiered pedestal. The deity is adorned with jewelry and a crown, and holds various symbolic objects in its four arms.

శ్రీ వేంకటేశ్వర స్వామి విగ్రహం, తిరుపతి

Statue of the Hindu goddess Lakshmi, seated on a lotus flower, supported by two bull figures (Nandi). The sculpture is made of dark brown stone and is displayed on a white pedestal in a museum setting.

SCULPTURE OF A SEATED FEMALE FIGURE

Relief carving of Lord Venkateswara, standing with four arms, holding a mace, conch shell, and lotus, surrounded by attendants and intricate carvings.

