

Handwritten text in Hindi on a white wall. The word "बोली" (Boli) is written in black ink. Above it, there are several lines of text in red and orange ink, which appear to be bleed-through from the reverse side of the wall. Below "बोली", there are some blue scribbles and a small drawing of a figure. At the bottom, there are some black scribbles and a small circular mark.

