

The Royal Barge Procession

For most of our lives, there have always been closely related to water. Also growing requires water to find the paddy fields. Communities were linked near rivers and forests relied on the intricate network of canals and waterways. Boats became an integral part in everybody's lives from laptops to Kings and, from the Ajanthaya period, developed into elaborate ceremonial barges used for water-borne processions by Kings for centuries up to the present day.

60th Anniversary of H.M. King Bhumibol's
Accession to the Throne 1946-2006

Supanna Hangse

